Air Medical Names Director of Operations

Roanoke, TX October 3, 2016; Aviation Search Group, an aviation recruiting firm, announced Martin Dyer was hired as the Director of Operations at Jet Center, dba Air Medical, located in San Antonio, TX. Mr. Dyer was hired after Aviation Search Group conducted an extensive nationwide search.

Air Medical speaks highly of their new director of operations. "After receiving recommendations from Aviation Search Group, it was clear that Marty was the right candidate for the role." stated Tim Morgan, CEO. He added, "His depth of experience and professional demeanor will help guide our company through future growth."

In addition to having flown as an air ambulance pilot, Mr. Dyer's experience also includes overseeing flight operations at a director level for several well known Part 135 organizations. Marty said he is "...excited to join the Air Medical team. They are a world class organization that is committed to providing the highest level of service and patient care available in the industry."
